Presiding: Emma Hockenberg

Case Conferencing	Sasha/all <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Sasha Hawman 2. Lindsey Cushman 	Concerns about the policy and time frames. We had a discussion understanding the timeframes that we have to house the different homeless types. COT states the reason we do case conferencing is because no one is left behind. ARC agrees that we shouldn't leave anyone behind. COPE stated that we're in this together. We should extend the time frames. OFS – it is how we're using our time. Sasha brought up that HMIS should bring data showing how long it is taking to house the different populations. Then agencies can drive who is on the case conferencing list. Motion: 1. All date time frames should be dropped and then HMIS can provide data on how long it is taking to house them. 2. Case conferencing list should be agency driven and we should update “in process” so we have a better understanding of what is going on. Lindsey seconds. Sasha amended the motion to request HMIS provide data to the CE committee for the next meeting based on housing type and population type from homeless to housed. Lindsey second. Motion Passed: Pima County abstains.	HMIS will provide data at the next CE meeting.
RRH data follow-up	HMIS	Looking at the RRH data prior to January 1, 2018. Let's bring data back to the next meeting. Veterans and families. COPE asked HMIS to provide totals on their charts.	HMIS will provide this data at the next CE meeting.
Pre-navigation pilot process document	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. COPE 2. ICS 	Motion: TPCH approves the Pre-Navigation Pilot Process CBI was concerned that navigators who receive referrals should be doing this. Motion Passed: CBI opposed, Pima County abstains.	TPCH has now adopted this process and will start following it.
Good of the Order		1. Jocelyn moves to adjourn meeting, ICS sends, consensus reached.

Next Meeting: Thurs., October 4, 1:30 – 3:00pm, Pettit/Miles Room, Pima County Housing Center, 801 W. Congress St.
